

Area Information Moab, Utah

 redriveradventures.com/area-information-moab-utah

If you are looking for a fun place for individuals and families alike, then Moab, UT is the place to go. This area is home to several outstanding national parks that always have plenty to do. National parks are a wonderful opportunity to experience the outdoors in all of their glory. Most national parks also provide camping or lodging, making it easy to get around; however, if you want to make your own accommodations outside, there are plenty of places to do so. Combine this with the town of Moab, which has a lot of character, and there is plenty of fun to go around. If you want to know what each of these gorgeous national parks has to offer, take a look at our helpful guide!

Plan your Moab, Utah adventure trip with Red River Adventures today!

Contact Us

Arches National Park

The variety of Arches National Park makes this the highlight of the area. While you can certainly drive through the park and enjoy some scenic views, it is always better to get out of the car and take a look around! Arches National Park is also to a beautiful arch called The Delicate Arch which you will recognize from Utah license plates. One of the best parts of Arches National Park is a hike called the Devil's Garden, which you can make as short or as long as you'd like! If you really want to see everything Arches National Park has to offer, you might even want to take a tour!

Canyonlands National Park

Canyonlands National Park is one of the most popular stops in Moab. It actually is made up of three separate parks. These include:

Island in the Sky

You can drive through this section of the park and see some amazing views of the canyons below; however, it is better to get out and take a look at some of the shorter hikes in this part of the park

The Needles

This is located in the southeast area of the Canyonlands National Park and is named after the unique sandstone spires that dot this area of the park

The Maze

This is the hardest part to get to; however, if you want to spend a couple of days exploring, this is the place to go
The Canyonlands National Park offers some of the top views in Moab.

Dead Horse Point State Park

The Dead Horse Point State Park sits a few thousand feet over the Colorado River. While it might not be as well-known as the other two state parks, this is a park that is full of adventures. The Dead Horse Point State Park is known for its amazing Intrepid Mountain Biking Tour, which is one of the top ways to see everything that Dead Horse Point State Park has to offer. The highlight of the Dead Horse Point State Park is its view of the amazing bend in the Colorado River. It should not be missed!

Experience Everything Moab, Utah State Parks Has To Offer!

If you want to experience everything that these amazing state parks in Moab, UT have to offer, then you need the help of Red River Adventures! Contact us today to learn more about how we can set you up with the adventure of a lifetime!
